

How ready is your organization to serve as a JI ECM provider?

Get a clear read in about five minutes. Free and self-guided.

Do you know where your organization stands on meeting the requirements of the Justice-Involved Reentry Initiative? Are operations optimized? The free JI ECM Provider Readiness Assessment shows you exactly how ready you are on the requirements and on your operations.

WHO THE READINESS ASSESSMENT IS FOR

Organizations that already serve, or are interested in serving, as JI ECM (Justice-Involved Enhanced Care Management) providers under California's Justice-Involved Reentry Initiative.

Readiness is evaluated in three foundational areas. The Assessment scores your organization in each one, lists your gaps, and recommends what to work on next.

Ready

In progress

Not ready

AREA 1

Eligibility & Enrollment

Whether your organization can enroll as a Medi-Cal provider through the PAVE portal.

AREA 2

Contracting

Alignment of managed care plan contracting in each county where your organization operates.

Grounded in current DHCS guidance.

AREA 3

Operational Readiness

The foundation for sustainability: staffing, service provision, eligibility verification, documentation, and billing.

Take the free assessment

thereentryread.com/assessment

About five minutes. Self-guided. No login required.

Questions, or want to discuss your results? Contact Rebekah at

Rebekah.Kharrazi@t9gp.com

About the developer: Rebekah Kharrazi, MPH, CPH is the author of The Reentry Read and a trusted advisor to leaders of mission-driven organizations serving justice-involved individuals. Rebekah helps organizations to translate complex policy requirements into practical, sustainable decisions. Her expertise in California's Justice-Involved Reentry Initiative was gained through work across the justice-involved ecosystem, including with community-based organizations, correctional facilities, managed care plans, and county behavioral health and social services agencies.

The Reentry Read · TheReentryRead.com | The JI ECM Provider Readiness Assessment is not a state-approved assessment. It reflects Rebekah Kharrazi's interpretation of published DHCS guidance and her experience working with JI ECM providers, and provides no guarantees of Medi-Cal enrollment, managed care plan contracting, or reimbursement.